

LADIDA CUELLAR won the Suttons Bay school spelling bee Jan. 17 by correctly spelling the words 'pristine' and 'barracks.' Jack Pasche was runner-up and Spencer Seeley, third. Seven spellers from Suttons Bay will advance to the Leelanau County Spelling Bee, Wednesday, Feb. 8 at Glen Lake. They are, from left, Seeley, Cuellar, Montanna Windham, Sydney Woodruff, Simon Kempf, Brett Rice and Pasche.

Sweetheart dinner Feb. 4

Winter Wonderland: 40 Years of Love is the theme for St. Mary School's 40th Sweetheart Dinner, set for Saturday, Feb. 4 in the school gymnasium.

Open to the public, the event honors members of the community with the "Benefactor of the Year" and "Lifetime Service Award."

The anniversary event will also recognize all the men and women who have been honored over the past four decades.

The menu will include mushroom basil chicken breast and sirloin steak. Musical entertainment will be provided by the Jelly Roll Blues Band. Complimentary photos will be taken during the social hour, which begins at 6 p.m. Dinner is at 7 p.m.

Price is $80 per person; tickets are available by calling 256-9670 or at www.stmarysll.org.

Proceeds will benefit student tuition scholarships through the Guardian Angel Society and the St. Mary School Endowment Foundation.

Discovery Center wants input in planning future

Planners for the Discovery Center — Great Lakes are inviting the community to join their planning process and help design the future campus for their programs and services.

The Discovery Center campus, located at 13240 S. West Bay Shore Dr., in Elmwood Township, currently includes four organizations: Great Lakes Children's Museum, Maritime Heritage Alliance, Traverse Area Community Sailing and The Watershed Center Grand Traverse Bay.

Input is being gathered via an online survey at www.zoomerang.com/Survey/WEB22EEGB6SNG3. All participants will be entered into a drawing for a sail on the schooner Madeline for two passengers.

Information gathers will be used by the four organizations to determine a site plan and architectural drawings.

COA offers seniors free tax help

The Leelanau County Commission on Aging is offering free federal and state income tax return preparation through the Association of American Retired Persons (AARP).

The service will be available at the Government Center in Suttons Bay and Empire Township hall in Empire by appointment.

Services are available to seniors whose federal income tax return consists primarily of wages, interest, dividends, simple capital gains/losses and retirement income.

There is no charge for the service. Further information is available by calling 256-8121.

Historical Society offers help with valentines

The Leelanau Historical Society is hosting a valentine-making workshop for children and their families on Saturday, Feb. 4.

There is no charge for the event, scheduled from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Munnecke Room, next to the Leland Township Library.

Crafting supplies and refreshments are provided.

Further information is available by calling 256-7475.

Camp's representative available Friday

Brandon Darin, a regional representative for U.S. Rep. David Camp (R-Midland) will host a constituent office hour visit on Friday at the county Government Center in Suttons Bay Township.

Camp has regional representatives host office hours around the U.S.

House Fourth District in Michigan each month. Darin will be at the county Government Center from 1:30-2:30 p.m. to meet with constituents who are having trouble dealing with a federal government agency. No appointment is necessary.

Community Association meets Monday to plan year

The Lake Leelanau Community Association will host its next meeting Monday at Dick's Pour House.

The meeting will start at 7 p.m. Association President Tony West said the meeting will focus on events planned for the year. "This is going to be a very informative meeting and we urge everyone to please come and give us your ideas," he said.

The association is also looking for different meeting venues throughout the year. For more information about the year, go to www.lakeleelanau.com or call West at (231) 409-7223.

"Jesus is Lord"

A skinny boy turned out for the first practice of a college football team.

The coach handed him the ball and said, "Let's see what you can do."

He tucked the ball under his arm and began to run down the field. A big fellow grabbed his left leg, and another his right leg, and said, "Make a wish."

That's when he quit.

There was a time when St. Paul felt he was about to be torn apart. But he didn't quit.

He said, "I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain."
